The following words are from her order of service from her funeral <sup>[details to be considered during the substantive stages of</sup>
but the image is the commemorative account:

"Anne, born 16th April 1963 in Tripoli to Joan and Edwin Cluff. She returned to England with her family when she was two years of age and grew up in Harlow with her sister <sup>[personal/sensitive]</sup> and brother <sup>[personal/sensitive]</sup>. Anne married Robert Cooper in 1982 and they spent twenty three years together happily married, blessed with three children, [personal/sensitive]. Anne enjoyed working with the youth service, libraries and at Homestead school. She helped many young people to cope with their own lives and put her all into caring and supporting others."
