

THE LAMPARD INQUIRY

RESTRICTION ORDER

PURSUANT TO SECTION 19 OF THE INQUIRIES ACT 2005

Restriction Order No.12 (Data Protection and Privacy)

The Chair has the power under Section 19 of the Inquiries Act 2005 ("the Act") to make orders restricting disclosure or publication of evidence or documents given, produced or provided to the Lampard Inquiry. The Chair will exercise this power in accordance with the Inquiry's Protocol on Restriction Orders, Redaction, Anonymity and Special Measures, which can be found on the Inquiry website.

This order is made in accordance with the approach set out in the Chair's Statement of Approach on Redaction, Data Protection and Privacy and is made of the Chair's own volition.

Any breach, or threat to breach, such an order can be certified to the High Court under Section 36 of the Act and may be punishable by a fine or imprisonment.

In exercise of the power under section 19(3)(a) and (3)(b) of the Act, IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. Where material is being disclosed to Core Participants, witnesses or third parties in order to progress the Inquiry's investigations, redactions will be made over personal data and sensitive information that it is not necessary and proportionate for the Inquiry to disclose.¹ This includes information relating to those who are still living, and those who are deceased.

¹ To be determined in accordance with the Chair's Statement of Approach on Redaction, Data Protection and Privacy dated 1 October 2024.

2. Where material is being shared with Core Participants, witnesses and / or is being published, redaction will be made over personal data and sensitive information that it is not necessary and proportionate for the Inquiry to share or publish. This includes information relating to those who are still living, and those who are deceased.
3. In both instances, where highly damaging and / or particularly sensitive information is being processed, the Inquiry will consider whether it may be appropriate to provide a summary or gist of the information in question, as opposed to disclosing or publishing the entirety of the document in which it is contained.
4. This entitlement can be waived by those who are still living by way of consent.
5. This Order is considered by the Chair to be required by law, and to be conducive to the Inquiry fulfilling its Terms of Reference and necessary in the public interest.
6. Redactions applied in accordance with this Order will be overwritten with the words 'Restricted' or 'Irrelevant / Sensitive'.
7. This Order remains in force for the duration of the Inquiry and at all times thereafter, unless otherwise ordered.
8. The Chair may vary or revoke this Order by making a further order during the course of the Inquiry.

Dated 1 October 2024

Baroness Kate Lampard CBE
Chair to the Lampard Inquiry
