Commemorative and impact statement.

How can you share , how much you are hurting because that hurt is so deep you can't explain it.

I died that day and only a part of me lived because of the love of my daughters, How dark it gets I think of them. Jason always looked out for his sisters and would be angry if I also left them. As Jason was looking forward to fulfilling his dreams.

Jason shared his many hopes and dreams for the future. He had achieved 1 of them he had cracked his teeth and wanted to have them capped , he got over his fear of the dentist to achieve this . (4 weeks before his death.) He was elated that he had now completed his treatment ,he could not stop smiling.

He never had the chance to go on to achieve any more of his hopes and dreams for the future as they all died with him. Jason did not want to die,

He wanted to live and to see his daughter grow up .

Jason had so much to live for and to continue to fulfil his dreams.

Our hearts were broken on 28th November 2021 and can never recover.

As a family we have each had our difficulties , coping, managing such a loss of a son and brother.

One of our difficulties is trying to understand and having to accept the death of Jason (that could have been prevented)

My Son a Brother a father who his daughter will never be able to get to know her father.

MH seem to be able to make and change the rules as they go along. They seem to forget that the patients in their care are their for treatment and MH patients are humans beings and not a piece of garbage you just throw out.

When they are not mentally fit for discharge..

All MH patients should be treated as you would like to be treated yourself.

Because I trusted MH I carry the guilt with me for the rest of my life for my Sons death.

A son a brother a father who was so loved by all who new him.

Our hearts are forever broken..

Jason was discharged 27 November 2001 and we lost him 28 November 2001

I can't go more in-depth as it is to painful.

This is the commemorative and impact statement of Christine and Keith Skeet, and their daughters Tara and Natasha in respect of their son and brother Keith Skeet, known as Jason
