

What we investigate

The pages below contain information on the types of issues we can consider, why that is, and other organisations that can help

Registered professionals

We consider concerns about professionals who are registered with us, and whether they are able to practise safely and effectively.

https://www.hcpc-uk.org/concerns/what-we-investigate/registered-professionals/

Misuse of title

We consider misuse of title cases, where individuals use one of our protected titles without being on our Register.

https://www.hcpc-uk.org/concerns/what-we-investigate/misuse-of-title/

Fitness to practise

This page provides information about what we mean by 'fitness to practise', and our role in relation to it.

https://www.hcpc-uk.org/concerns/what-we-investigate/fitness-to-practise/

Other organisations

This page lists the other organisations that are responsible for regulating, and investigating concerns about, health and care professionals in the UK.

https://www.hcpc-uk.org/concerns/what-we-investigate/other-organisations/

What we cannot investigate

A list of the types of issues we cannot get involved with.

https://www.hcpc-uk.org/concerns/what-we-investigate/what-we-cannot-investigate/