What happens during Longview Ward Reviews?

- Ward reviews are meetings where the staff that are supporting you talk about how you have been doing and the plan for your care that week.
- Ward reviews happen every week.
- You get to have your say about what is important to you.
- This is so the staff know what you want and can help support you to achieve it.

	The first part, called 'Part One', happens on Mondays.
	Staff that work with you will be at the meeting. This might include the doctor, a nurse, a therapist, and a teacher.
	You can prepare for the meeting by filling in a form.

fill in form

The form has space for you to write about your views and opinions about your care.

Going out with staff for a while

The form has space to write about your views about your 'leave'.

'Leave' is going out for a while.

Going out with parent/carer for a while check on you

The form has space to write about your views about your 'observation levels', which is how often the staff check on you.
